FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Book Club to Form at the Library

Kerrville (June 4, 2013) – The Butt-Holdsworth Memorial Library is excited to announce the formation of the “Brown Bag Book Club.” Great books, great friends, and a welcoming location will spur lively, thought-provoking discussion as Lolita Holczer, Patron Services Librarian, moderates the discussion. The Brown Bag Book Club will be an “open” club, allowing those interested to attend as often as they choose. Members are welcome to bring their lunch as they gather to discuss the month’s book selection.

The book club will kick-off on Thursday, July 11 at noon in the Library’s Conference Room. Individuals interested in participating in the book club are encouraged to attend the first meeting to discuss the reading list and other details. The first book discussion will be held on Thursday, August 8 at noon on Blue Asylum by Kathy Hepinstall. Patrons may place a request for the book in person, by phone at 830.258.1274, or on the library website at <http://libraryweb.kerrvilletx.gov>. Future meetings will be held on the second Thursday of the month at noon in the Library Conference Room.

For additional information contact Laura Bechtel, Library Director at 830.258.1260 or visit the city’s website at www.kerrvilletx.gov.
